

LITTLE RED HEN GARDEN CENTER

891-9100

Echinacea

Visit the largest selection of Echinaceas imaginable. We are introducing such lovelies as “Mango Orange” and “Sunrise.” This leading perennial is available now in great new colors. Also known as “Coneflowers,” Echinacea has long been known for its healing properties, but its beauty is what has made it such a popular flower. Vitamin supplement is derived from its root. Their roots have even been used by Indians for snake bites. Many are fragrant and attract butterflies. Their long lasting blooms and strong stems make them great for cutting. Another desirable trait is that these summer loving plants are deer resistant and are drought tolerant once established.

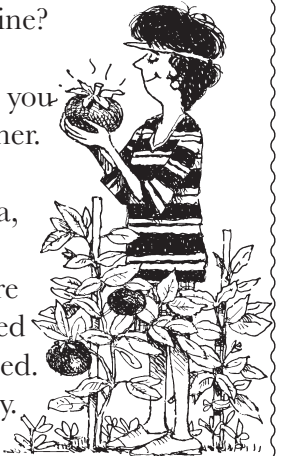

Tomatoes

PLANT ME ANYTIME

Who can resist the delicious temptation of a tomato picked fresh from the vine?

Our vegi area is bursting with tomatoes ready to plant, which you can plant throughout the summer.

We have too many varieties to name. They're red, plum, zebra, yellow, purple, roma, cherry, heirlooms and hybrids. Most are from organic seed, all are treated organically once they've sprouted. Tomatoes are container friendly.

PICK ME/EAT ME

GARDEN HINT:

For the Best Taste, Don't Refrigerate!

Whippee! We now take credit and debit cards

Little Red Hen is a community non-profit therapeutic plant nursery with perennials, annuals, trees, flowering shrubs, garden art and more... we are excited to present our new and unusual garden and gift items. Meander through our lovely garden center which is both inspirational and user friendly. Arriving soon: more unique annuals from our supporters at EuroAmerica. Look forward to more of our amazing colorbowls, water fountains, solar art and a floral shoppe, featuring Flowers by Lee! Say hi to TJ at this year's Thursday night Farmer's Market. Come in and try Big Andy's Worms for your garden. All three of these are budding microbusinesses of our LITTLE RED HEN staff.

Josh Blue tickets are available at Little Red Hen and Sierra Nevada's Pub.

We expect to be SOLD OUT, so get your tickets now!

If you would like to contribute to our silent auction Call 828-4262. You don't have to be a business to contribute.

Little Red Hen Garden Center is located on 8th & Wall Streets • Downtown Chico
OPEN EVERYDAY • Mondays thru Fridays 9am-5pm • Saturdays & Sundays 9am-3pm

LITTLE RED HEN NURSERY, INC IS A 501(C)(3), NON PROFIT CORPORATION